Plants Quiz

In the table below, name five different plant parts and explain their job as part of the plant.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Part</th>
<th>Job</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

If you had a white rose, and you needed a blue rose, what could you do? Why would it work?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
What are six things plants need to survive?

1. ____________________
2. ____________________
3. ____________________
4. ____________________
5. ____________________
6. ____________________

Draw and label the four stages of a bean’s life cycle.

Name and describe two ways different plants have adapted to overcome threats to their survival.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________