

Ergonomics

Today's period will be used to work on your Ergonomics Advertisement. Before you begin we will start by reviewing the information we discussed last class:

You should be working on your rough draft.

- Product Idea
- Wording
- Layout
- Image
- Media Literacy Choices

If you get your rough draft done, you may start on your good copy.

Your rough draft is due at the start of next class. The good copy is to be complete two classes from now.
